Bishop Paul Gaehring

serves as President of Redemption Ministerial Fellowship International (RMFI) under the Apostolic headship of Apostle Ron Carpenter. Bishop Paul oversees an apostolic network of 1,300+ RMFI ministers, churches, and ministries throughout the USA, and in 35 nations. This apostolic network is birthed and based out of the 15,000 member Redemption World Outreach Center (RWOC) in Greenville, SC.

Bishop Paul and his wife Karyl have been married and in ministry together for over 30 years. Karyl serves with Bishop Paul as RMFI Director of Development and Women in Ministry. They have two sons, Paul II and Michael who are in ministry. Paul II and his wife Kristen have blessed Bishop Paul & Karyl with their first grandson. Bishop Paul travels extensively, ministering in many churches and conferences in the USA, and internationally conducting conferences and crusades in many nations. In addition to serving as President of RMFI since it's founding, Bishop Paul has served for many years as a senior pastor, staff pastor; as a college professor, dean, and executive vice-president; and as a vice-president in an international parachurch ministry. His ministry education includes a B.A. in Bible from Central Bible College, a Master of Theological Studies degree, a Ph.D. candidacy from Drew University, and a Doctor of Ministry degree from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

Come CELEBRATE with us!!
